Quality Treats

Once upon a time, two princesses showed up at the ball wearing the same necklace.

’Twas not a pretty sight.

For a shopping experience with a truly happy ending, trust Anedoti for one-of-a-kind accessories that won't be seen on everyone else. The online fashion boutique sells clothing and handcrafted accessories by upcoming designers from around the world.

The brainchild of fashionable duo Anne and Ed, Anedoti is not only a combination of their names but also a nod to the Italian word for 'little stories'. The site offers unique products, each with a story to tell, like chic leather gloves (this season's must-have), sleek crocodile belts and the limited-edition Anna e Alex crystal necklace made with marabou feathers and bottoni del cardinale (the unique material used to embellish the clothing at the Vatican).

Sign up to receive exclusive invites to private events in London, New York and Dubai; meet designers face to face and preview the latest collections before anybody else.

What's more, Anedoti is offering a free gift-wrapping service to DailyCandy readers on all purchases made online between now and 31 December.

Now that's a happy ending.

Available online at anedoti.com.
