

Lonsdale bag by Notting Hill Design

Big handbags go in and out of fashion like nobody's business, but a perennial favourite is the seventies style oversized handbag.

Structured in heavy looking leather, it might not be girly, but it does mean business. This Notting Hill Design Lonsdale bag is a great example, especially in this particularly 70s shade of orange. Handcrafted in Italy from real leather and patent, this is one of those bags to last a lifetime.

The price tag should come as no surprise in that case, at £625 from Anedoti online.
